Maimonides Medical Center is an award winning full service academic medical center serving the health care needs of the 2.5 million residents of Brooklyn – New York City’s largest borough. Maimonides nurses are passionate about building individualized relationships with their patients, while fostering culturally competent care and embracing continuous learning. At Maimonides, every nurse is a leader of patient care – dedicated to clinical excellence in every facet of their nursing practice.

We invite student nurses to join our upcoming 9 week paid student nurse extern program. You will be mentored by an expert registered nurse and have the opportunity to expand your nursing knowledge and develop your critical thinking, practicing within a model of relationship-based care.
